We gratefully acknowledge the generous support given by the citizens and friends of the Borough of Mount Pleasant during the past year spent preparing this publication. The names of individuals who contributed to our research or provided source material are too numerous to list. Along with our families, the staff of the Mount Pleasant Journal was unfailing in all efforts to see this Sesquicentennial Edition to a successful conclusion.

In tribute to those who now stand here at the Crossroad,
This book is dedicated
To the memory of those who came before
And to the promise of those who shall follow.
